

Learning to ask the right questions

Who? What?:

Understanding Question Words

★ Let's Start!

In this activity, you will learn about questions. These are called Wh-questions. We use them to ask for information. You will learn about who, what, when, where, why, and which. Then, you will make your own questions.

Build Your Vocabulary

Term	Your Definition	Example
Who	Someone	Who is your friend?
What	[Write your answer here]	[Write your answer here]
When	[Write your answer here]	[Write your answer here]
Where	[Write your answer here]	[Write your answer here]
Why	[Write your answer here]	[Write your answer here]
Which	[Write your answer here]	[Write your answer here]
Whose	[Write your answer here]	[Write your answer here]

Learning to ask the right questions

Who? What?:

Understanding Question Words

Write About What You Learned

Let's think about what you learned.

What is one new thing you learned about Wh-questions?

[Write your answer here.]

Why is it important to ask questions?

How can you use Wh-questions in your daily life?

Learning to ask the right questions

Who? What?:

Understanding Question Words

Answer key

Term	Your Definition	Example
Who	Someone	Who is your friend?
What	Something	What is your favorite color?
When	A time	When is your birthday?
Where	A place	Where do you live?
Why	A reason	Why are you happy?
Which	A choice	Which shirt do you like?
Whose	Shows possession	Whose dog is this?

