

FAMILY AND FRIENDS DIALOGUE

Leo is Sara's cousin. They are having a huge family gathering at Sara's house next weekend, and she is calling Leo to talk about the details.

Sara: Hello, Leo. How are you?

Leo: Hi, Sara. I'm great, thank you! How's the preparation going?

Sara: There are still a lot of things to do, but it's a good thing Aunt May came by today to help.

Leo: That's great. I'm sorry, I wish I could help, too!

Sara: It's okay. So, are Grandma and Grandpa coming?

Leo: Of course! In fact, they can't wait for the weekend to come.

Sara: Oh, I'm excited to see them!

Leo: How about our cousins Alex and Emma?

Sara: They're coming, too! They're flying from London, so they need to arrive a day early.

Leo: Amazing! I haven't seen them in years. We can go to the beach together!

Sara: Sure! The weather's great, and we can explore the cave, too!

Leo: That sounds great!

Sara: It is. Oh, Mum's calling me already. I've got to go. See you!

Leo: See you!
